Dear Chewonki friends,

The past year was very special for Chewonki. With a renewed mission to guide us, we focused on aligning our programs to the mission, refining our practices, and positioning the organization for a healthy, sustainable future. We nurtured “transformative growth” in many young participants, from Semester School students and campers on Chewonki Neck to Wilderness Trippers in wild parts of Maine, the Northeast, and Canada. We taught “appreciation and stewardship of the natural world” to thousands of people in a wide variety of settings, sometimes right in their own backyards: we delivered 778 Traveling Natural History Programs to communities across Maine. And we challenged current and former participants to “build thriving, sustainable communities” of many kinds, from girls’ yurt groups to school groups in the Outdoor Classroom to alumni gatherings across the country. You can take pride in how this organization works day by day in meaningful ways to teach Chewonki values.

I am grateful to be leading a group of committed trustees and advisors engaged in thoughtful analysis to make sure that each of our programs is relevant for the times. Some programs may evolve as a result of this analysis; each will continue to advance the Chewonki mission, rooted in the wisdom of our 100-year history.

At the beginning of each trustees’ meeting, we take time to offer anecdotes of how Chewonki has made, and still makes, a difference to us or to a family member. These testimonials are always inspiring, grounding us in our responsibility to steward this wonderful organization so that it thrives not only today but also for our children’s children and onward.

Thank you so much for your support. In FY 2013, your dollars were integral to Chewonki’s success. Willard and his team will keep working tirelessly to ensure that Chewonki merits your ongoing commitment. As we turn to celebrate the first 100 years, we honor a rich history that provides outstanding traditions and a foundation upon which Chewonki will build toward the future. Looking forward, it’s clear: Chewonki will continue to inspire.

With all best wishes,

John Warren
Chair, Board of Trustees

MISSION

Chewonki inspires transformative growth, teaches appreciation and stewardship of the natural world, and challenges people to build thriving, sustainable communities throughout their lives.
Dear Chewonki friends,

This annual report is a testament to the commitment and generosity of our donors and volunteers, who assure that Chewonki continues to be a vital force in the lives of young people as well as staff, alumni, and friends. I cannot overstate my appreciation for your ongoing support.

For a century, Chewonki has based its programs on the principle that unstructured and unplugged time in nature, physical challenge, healthy risk, connection to animals, hands in the dirt, reflection, learning and working in community, and role-modeling by mature adults are all fundamental to supporting children in their ongoing education, relationships, and work in the world. Science and research are confirming the efficacy of Chewonki’s philosophy. Chewonki is essential in a world that calls for a caring, active, community-minded citizenry resolved to make a positive impact on the natural, social, and built environments in which we live.

In 2013, thanks to you, we surpassed all previous Chewonki annual funds: we raised $777,088, a remarkable increase of 31 percent over 2012! A group of lead donors created a pool of funds with which to inspire new and increased gifts through a 2:1 challenge. We called this effort “Spring Into Action,” and it had a powerful effect. Another success story was the overlapping “Raise the Roof” campaign, which increased semester alumni participation from 12 percent to over 30 percent and earned Chewonki a generous capital gift from the Hal and John Smith Family Foundation for a new student cabin. In addition, we had a fabulous year of support from visionary foundations who made grants to programs for public school students at Chewonki and four partner organizations.

Also in 2013, we moved ahead in assessing Chewonki both in terms of financial performance and our revised mission standards. We look forward to increasing our educational and environmental impact and continuing to improve our financial position. Our path to achieving those goals will become clear as we move through the 100th summer of Boys Camp and into our Centennial Year (2014-2015). Your financial support and friendship will be essential.

Thank you, again and always, for your loyalty to Chewonki!

Best regards,

Willard Morgan
President

IN SUPPORT OF THE RAISE THE ROOF CHALLENGE

Special thanks to the Smith family for creating the Raise the Roof challenge, which helped increase semester alumni giving from 12% to 30%. Seventy-seven class agents and alumni volunteers mobilized a total of 532 semester alumni to contribute, including 337 who gave a total of $29,938 in first-time donations. In response, the Hal and John Smith Family Foundation generously granted Chewonki $50,000 to help build a new energy-efficient cabin, which students will help design, site, and build. Semester alumni contributors to the Raise the Roof challenge appear with ✧ to the right of their names.
